New Books.

MYSTERIES; or, Glimpses of the Supernatural. By CHARLES WYLLIS ELLIOTT. New York: Harper & Brothers.

This is a pleasantly written book, containing accounts of the Salem Witchcrafts, the Cook Lane Ghost, the Rochester Rappings, the Stratford Mysteries, Oracles, Astrology, Dreams, Demons, Ghosts, Specters, &c. Persons who have a taste for the weird and wonderful will read this work with much interest, and it is also fraught with matter interesting to the calm philosophical thinker. We think the book is a useful publication.

For sale by S. & W. Merrill of this city.

MARCO PAUL'S VOYAGES AND TRAVELS IN VERMONT. By JACOB ABBOTT. New York: Harper and Brothers.

This is one of a series of volumes for youth, entitled, "Marco Paul's Adventures in the Pursuit of Knowledge." The object of the series "is not merely to entertain the reader with a narrative of juvenile adventures, but also to communicate, in connection with them, as extensive and varied information as possible, in respect to the geography, the scenery, the customs, and the institutions of this country, as they present themselves to the observation of the little traveler, who makes his excursions under the guidance of an intelligent and well-informed companion, qualified to assist him in the acquisition of knowledge and in the formation of character. The author has endeavored to enliven his narrative, and to infuse into it elements of a salutary moral influence, by means of personal incidents befalling the actors in the story. These incidents are, of course, imaginary—but the reader may rely upon the strict and exact truth and fidelity of all the descriptions of places, institutions, and scenes, which are brought before his mind in the progress of the narrative."

"Young America" owes a lasting debt of gratitude to the Abbott Family for the many excellent books issued by them for the benefit of youths and juveniles, and this series is among the most interesting. All the books published by the "Abbotts" should be found in every family where there are children.

Messrs. S. & W. Merrill have them for sale.

Incendiarism.

On last Wednesday morning, about 11 o'clock, the stable of Mrs. Richardson, on the alley between Illinois and Meridian, and Ohio and New York streets, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was instantly given, but the building was destroyed before the engines reached the ground. Scarcely had the firemen put up their apparatus when the alarm of fire was again heard. This time it was the stable of Dr. Parry, on the same alley. This building was burnt down, and also the adjoining stable of Rev. Mr. McLean, before the fire was extinguished.

On Wednesday night, about ten o'clock, the wood-house of Mr. J. Little, on Alabama street, accidentally caught fire and burnt down; but the firemen prevented the fire from doing any further injury. About 1 o'clock, the same night, an out-house belonging to Joshua Stevens, Esq., in the south-eastern part of the city, was set on fire, and burnt down.

Our citizens should be on the look-out for the impudent soundrels, who are thus infesting our city. They are doubtless the same who were so active last winter in burning old houses, and impunity has made them bold and reckless.

Pennsylvania Nominations.

The Democratic Convention for the Old Keystone, held at Harrisburgh on the 26th inst., nominated Hon. George W. Woodard for Judge of the Supreme Court, and William Hopkins, of Washington county, for Canal Commissioner. These are excellent nominations, and will, unquestionably, be elected. Resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the nominees of the Baltimore Democratic Convention and the platform as an entirety. Pennsylvania will give Pierce and King an old fashioned Democratic majority.

Dr. Grubbs, of the New Castle Courier, asserts that Professor Larrabee openly elocuted for the nomination on Sunday. Deftly denies that Mr. Larrabee did any such thing. With all his mendacity, Deftly dare not make such an assertion in this community where the Professor is known. That honor is reserved for the New Castle Whig editor.

False Pretences.
Deftly attempts to create the impression that Dr. Ellis has certified to the correctness of the Whig document, containing certain garbled extracts from the Legislative expenses. This is not true, and when Deftly attempts to palm off such a thing on the public, he does it for the purpose of deceiving them. No one believes that the Auditor of State would have certified to any such thing. There was an error in the amount paid to Judge Test, Secretary of State, and at his request, Dr. Ellis addressed to Deftly the following note:

OFFICE OF AUDITOR OF STATE,
Indianapolis, July 29, 1852.
J. D. DEFTEES, Esq.—Sir: In looking over your paper of this morning, I find an error in the amount paid Hon. C. H. Test, for enrolling. The whole sum paid the Secretary of State for that service, was only $348, the $380, as allowed in the specific appropriation bill being included in that amount, and inadvertently stated as a separate item. You will therefore please make the proper correction.

Very respectfully,
E. W. H. ELLIS,
Auditor of State.

This is appended to the Whig document in a manner intended to convey the idea that it is a certificate, when it is only a note requesting the editor to correct one single item.

The correctness of not another item, stated in the long bill, is certified to by Dr. Ellis, or any one else. For aught we know, or the public know, they are all incorrect. Let the editor and Mr. McCarty produce the official certificate of the proper officer before they attempt to palm off such productions on our honest, unsuspecting public.

Damaged Goods for Sale.
Greeley can't sell his documents. They are so much dead lumber on his hands. He first begs, and then threatens. Hear him:

"Whigs throughout the country! we must work zealously, effectively, or be beaten! That is the sad truth. Our adversaries have nearly twice as many members of Congress as we have, and are frantically enormous quantities of documents all over the country. We prefer that the People should supply themselves in a manner which imposes no tax on the Post-Office revenue, as the franking system does. Receive by express or by private hand if possible, for the postage on documents sent by mail and not franked is unreasonably high; but at all events, let the light shine through your localities. You can organize a club of twenty working Whigs almost anywhere, raise $5 for documents, and supply one or more to each voter who will read; and by the time this is done you will have more members and more means. Honors are precious—a moderate effort now will effect more than a hard one in the heat of the contest. Friends! work! work!"

Whigs, don't send to Truman Smith's committee, but buy the Pictorial life of Scott, by Horace Greeley, and "Why I am a Whig," by the same author. Do it quick, or Horace will never sell his damaged goods. Peter Funk is nowhere, since Greeley has taken to sneering—Whigs to the rescue.

The following from the New York Lantern is the best hit of the season:

LIFE OF FRANKLIN PIERCE—supposed to be by W. E. Robinson, Esq., itinerant roaster to the Whigs.
4004 B. C. Is born in Concord, New Hampshire.
4002 " Is expelled from Eden.

For Gen. Scott—
"Fired with indignation"—Flag of Victory.

The Journal, alluding to Professor Larrabee, says:
"As to his making political speeches, we have the authority of the Democratic paper at Terre Haute for saying that he did make a political speech at the Bloomington Democratic Convention."
We are authorized to say that Mr. Larrabee never made a political speech in Bloomington in his life. If we are wrong the citizens of Bloomington can correct us.

More Whig Slanders.

We understand that John H. Bradley, the committee-of-three Whig candidate for Congress in this District, in a Whig speech at Noblesville a few evenings since, asserted that Gen. Frank Pierce was in neither of the battles before the city of Mexico, and, that during the battles, he was "dead drunk." Democrats, this is the men the Whig committee has put forward as their candidate for Congress. We have no comments to make.

The attention of business men is called to the advertisement in another column, headed "A Young Man," &c. The gentleman who desires the situation possesses the qualifications claimed for him in the advertisement, being a graduate of one of the Indiana colleges, and we have no doubt his services will be valuable to whomever may employ him.

A Bad Egg.

A letter from Washington says:
"The President withdrew the nomination of Orson Hyde, a Mormon Elder and Exhorter, as Associate Judge of the Territorial Court of Utah. It was proved that the Elder preached and practiced polygamy, and that his legal requirements were not above the average of those of peripatetic preachers. He would have been rejected, if not withdrawn."

PLYMOUTH, August 30, 1852.

Set Marshall county down at 100 majority for Pierce and King. Willard knocked the bark off of Williams on last Friday.

Learn from reliable authority that Major Dunn has never certified to any account of Dr. Sherrod, and will only certify to the amount due him for actual services. Dr. Sherrod is now lying very ill at his residence in Paoli, and when we last heard from him was scarcely expected to survive. It might be expected by some that under such circumstances as these the Tribune editor would desert from his malignant assaults; but we have no such expectation.—New Albany Ledger.

Committee of Three Candidates for Congress—John H. Bradley.

The free-soil Election in 1848, who repudiated Gen. Taylor for President, and supported Martin Van Buren—the self-renowned John H. Bradley, having been placed upon the ticket as the Whig candidate for Congress, has issued his first manifesto to the electors of this District; and such an address! ye Gods and little fishes protect us. Waiving the personal slanders against the editor of the State Sentinel, and the insult to the electors of the old District, I come to the charge, uttered in defiance of truth, justice, or the least sense of moral obligation, that Thomas A. Hendricks, the unanimous choice of the Democracy of this District, would, if elected, be a tool in the hands of William J. Brown, to promote his political prospects with the Pierce administration, and the prospects of such friends as he might designate!

Well, if this is not a rich appeal for a Scott candidate for Congress to make, then I am greatly mistaken in what constitutes rich, in the most ridiculous sense of that term. It is, in effect, in full and voluntary admission that there is not the remotest prospect of the election of Gen. Scott. Every issue and principle that has heretofore divided the Democratic and Whig parties are to be discarded, and Bradley to be elected to prevent William J. Brown from obtaining office under Pierce's administration! That John H. Bradley thinks he will have so much influence with President Pierce that William J. Brown may hang up his fiddle, and his harp upon the willows, while the redoubtable John is in Congress! I have heard of Don Quixote fighting a windmill, and read John H. Bradley's communication, claiming influence with Pierce's administration, and have considered both alike senseless.

This far famed, oratory, however, John H. Bradley, is a beautiful bird to talk of honesty, political consistency, or influence as a Congressman! He began his career as a Jackson man—being a hickory Quaker his Jacksonism never set very closely about him—repudiated Jackson because he vetoed the United States Bank and became a famous Harrison Whig; was an ardent supporter of the Bankrupt law, and at the session of 1841-'42 made a speech in the Indiana Legislature against its repeal—was a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in 1843—had the vanity to attack Gov. Whitecomb, during the canvass, at the Court House in Indianapolis, and was so badly used up that he was ashamed to show his face in the city the balance of the season—was beaten by Jesse D. Bright so far that he was afraid to look at the voters—was disgusted with the Whigs for their ingratitude and refused to support Gen. Taylor for President—turned free-soiler and voted for the man he had abused and vilified—persuaded John D. Deftrees that he could get a few abolition votes, and got a committee of three to be appointed by a township meeting, to nominate him for Congress—has been nominated, and makes an address, in which he virtually admits that Gen. Pierce will be elected; but that the Democrats of the District must elect him to prostrate William J. Brown's political prospects under the Pierce administration!

Will either Whigs or Democrats, or even abolitionists or free-soilers vote for such a scapegrace as this? Surely they will not, when they have the opportunity of voting for one of the most promising young men in the State—a native born Hoosier, I believe, and who is an honor to Indiana.

A LOOKER ON IN INDIANA.

(From the Nashville Union.)

Unfortunate Affray.
On yesterday a difficulty occurred between Gen. Zollicoffer, editor of the Banner, and John L. Marling, Esq., principal editor of this paper, in which Gen. Zollicoffer was shot in the hand, and Mr. Marling in the right side of the face, slightly above the nose, and ranging backward to the carriage of the neck below the ear. The wound, though serious and painful, is not deemed very dangerous. The immediate cause of the difficulty was the following article which appeared in the Union of yesterday:

"The Banner talks somewhat about editorial courtesy. Now we want to say a plain word or two to the Banner. It has pursued a most reckless and unscrupulous course towards Gen. Pierce. It has been prompt to circulate the New Boston libel against him, and a 'swift witness' to sustain it. It has tried to identify him with the abolitionism of New Hampshire, with which he had no sympathy and against which he constantly struggled. It has tried to misrepresent his sentiments on slavery. It has even cast aspersions upon his personal courage. Now we say this is belittling General Pierce. We use the word in all its length and breadth. It is shameless misrepresentation. It is falsifying the records of the country. It is traducing and blackening the fame of a true, brave, and gallant man. It is a course unworthy of an honorable man, and which deserves unmitigated condemnation. We say, if this course is to be persisted in toward public men by the political press, the occupation of a political editor, hitherto honorable, will become disgraceful in the eyes of all honest men. If such is to be the tone of the political press, it is useless for public men to be honest and patriotic—it is useless for them to toil for the weal of our common country—for do what they will, the bitterness of party will never permit them to act, and leave no effort untaken to blacken their fame. If there is a Northern man living who has proved himself true to the South, FRANKLIN PIERCE is that man. And if there is one man among the Whig press of this city who has treated with more unfairness than another, he certainly is the man."

"While such a course as this is pursued by our political opponents, it is useless for them to rant about editorial courtesy. In their acceptance of the term, it is nothing more or less than to suffer their falsehoods to pass uncontradicted. This we will never do while we control all columns of this paper. We will never use a political opponent for propagating against him what we know to be false, and we will not suffer falsehoods against a political friend to pass unbranded."
As to the actual facts of the case both gentlemen knew the difficulty was to take place, and both were prepared. The Assistant Editor of this paper was present and knows that no advantage was taken or sought, and that each conducted themselves with coolness and courage. We refrain from a statement of the facts preceding and during the difficulty, farther than to state that after the publication of the article no other honorable option was left Mr. Marling but to meet the responsibility incident to it. This he did as became a brave and honorable man. We know that in every phase of this affair the conduct of Mr. Marling has been controlled by a high sense of public duty as a journalist, and that in the discharge of that duty he has ever held himself ready to assume the responsibilities attaching to him as a gentleman and a man of honor. He felt it his duty to publish the article, and he published it. After its publication he did nothing which he could have avoided doing, without a sacrifice of every claim to the respect of honorable men.

A word more. The occurrence of difficulties like this are extremely unfortunate. But they are sometimes unavoidable. No man is worthy to conduct a paper who is not ready to meet all responsibilities, and the readers of the Union are assured that such responsibilities will always be met here. Regard for the public peace would cause the Editor and Assistant Editor of this paper to prefer a more quiet mode of adjustment; but when forced upon them in the public streets, as in this case, they have no option but to meet them there, and leave the public to pass their own judgment. The course of this paper, hereafter, will be as it has been, firm and bold in the advocacy of what it deems right, and whatever be the consequences, to the Editor or Assistant Editor, they will do what they think right, leaving consequences to take care of themselves.

Democratic Barbecue.
The Democrats of Louisville and Jefferson County are preparing for and intend to give a Barbecue near Louisville on the 15th of September next—an old fashioned barbecue, such as had its rise in old Virginia, and which has been kept up and improved upon by Kentuckians. They intend to have plenty to eat, and somewhere to sleep, for fifty thousand if they come. They intend to beat that "Lundy's Lane" affair all to pieces.

There shall be no "wolf-like howl," for a place to sleep and something to eat, as at that celebrated gathering.

Our city abounds in good hotels, clean beds, and abundant and excellent food, at moderate charges. No tents with straw, at a price a head for lodging, need be provided.
Come one, come all.—Louisville Democrat.

Democratic Convention of Greene County.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Democrats of Greene county met at Bloomfield on Saturday, the 21st of August, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several county offices, to be filled at the next general election.

The Convention being organized by the election of A. Spainbour as Chairman, and A. L. Rhodes as Secretary, the lists of township delegates were reported; after which the Democrats from the townships not represented were invited to act as delegates for those townships.

The ratio of representation being determined, the candidates before the Convention responded to the call made upon them, and agreed to abide the action of the Convention.

The Convention then proceeded to make the nominations, (a majority of all the votes cast being required therefor), when Wm. S. Bays was nominated for Representative; Thos. H. Messick for Sheriff; John Jones for Auditor; Jos. Lyons for Treasurer; David W. Hutchins for Coroner; Josiah Records for Commissioner of 1st District; Abraham Spainbour for Commissioner of 2d District; Aaron Hagaman for Commissioner of 3d District. All of which nominations were unanimously confirmed.

The following resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That having, by a spirit of true compromise, selected candidates for the various county offices, whom we believe to be capable and honest, we will yield personal preferences, and support the nominees with a zeal and energy that will make success certain.

Resolved, that the proceedings of this Convention be sent to the State Sentinel and Terre Haute Journal for publication.

Upon motion, the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.—The State elections in Iowa, Missouri, North Carolina, and Arkansas, have all gone in favor of the Democrats by a large majority. Before these elections took place, both parties agreed that the results would indicate the public opinion of the country, and also affect it in a still greater degree in the same direction. These States have gone decidedly Democratic, thus showing that the feeling of the country is in favor of the Democracy, and against the Whig party. In fact every State election held this year, North and South, has gone in favor of the Democrats.—N. Y. Herald.

RESOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The partnership heretofore existing between A. Franco and M. Woolf has been dissolved by mutual consent. All who are indebted, either by Note or Book, will please call and settle, as the business of the firm must be closed by the 25th inst.

FRENCH TUITION.
Mons. A. DERRVILLE, of Paris, a native of France, respectfully informs the citizens of Indianapolis, that he will give instructions in this fashionable and useful language, and by the close analysis of his method of teaching, his pupils will be enabled to speak the language.

Also, Mons. D. can teach any lady to sing in the French language and pronounce as correctly as French ladies, without being obliged to study the entire language.

If any person has not the time to study, they can, by an hour's conversation per day for three months, learn enough of the French language for traveling.

The following certificates have been given to Mons. D.—
This is to certify that Mons. A. Derrville has given instructions in French to a class in the Female Institute of this place, to the entire satisfaction of the most substantial manner, and that he is a highly successful teacher in that language; and further that at our late public examination several of his pupils performed French songs, at the piano, which they had prepared under his instruction, and that the execution was commensurate with the time and the language.

CHICKERING'S PIANO FORTES
Manufactured by JONAS CHICKERING, Boston—sold by ALBERT E. JONES, INDIANAPOLIS.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to CHICKERING'S GRAND AND SQUARE PIANO FORTES, which are manufactured by him in Boston. They are all made to order, and close up every thing by the frame to every instrument, and are particularly calculated to stand the most severe climates.

He has of late enlarged his MANUFACTURING FACILITIES, and hopes soon to be able to meet most of the pressing demands for his instruments. Within the past few years, there have been received from Mexico, the West India Islands, and the Southern States, the most decided and gratifying proofs of the Superior Excellence and Durability of these instruments in these severe climates. They are manufactured from the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials, and are all fully warranted.

The manufacturer received a Prize Medal for his Square Piano Forte, exhibited at the World's Fair in London, last season, and also a special and complimentary notice from the Jury that examined his GRAND PIANO FORTES. He has recently made important improvements in both his Grand and Square Piano Fortes; and the public may be assured that every effort will be made to have all instruments from his manufactory unsurpassed in Tone and Durability.

He feels gratified to the public for the patronage he has heretofore received, and hopes to merit a continuance of public favor.

A full assortment of CHICKERING'S PIANO FORTES may at all times be found for sale at the factory prices by

A. E. JONES,
Who is the exclusive agent for the sale of the same for this city.

BOUND FOR CALIFORNIA.—Indiana arrived with dates to the 14th July. The cholera had almost disappeared from the State.

The barley crops of the Sacramento valley had been harvested, and yielded heavy grain of a superior quality.

TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.—An adjourned meeting for the purpose of organization and appointing officers, will be held at the Commercial Institute Rooms on Thursday evening next, September 2d, at early candle-light. A full attendance of those friendly to the cause of education is earnestly requested.

B. L. LANG, Pres't pro tem.
W. McK. Scott, Sec'y.
Indianapolis, Sept. 2, 1852.

THE INSIDE OF THE HUMAN STOMACH, and the stomach of all animals, is lined with a membrane full of little glands, or organs, which secrete or produce, a remarkable fluid called Gastric Juice, having the power to dissolve all ordinary substances introduced into the stomach, and to convert them into the crude material of blood. In the stomach of the Ox, when killed, the chief element of the Gastric Juice, called Pepsin, is found in great abundance, and may be readily extracted by a chemical process. This Dr. Houghton has done, and applied it most successfully as a remedy for Dyspepsia, and bad Stomachs. It is a most ingenious and rational step in Medical Science.

J. B. FITLER & CO.,
Undertakers and Coffin Makers, Manufacturers of every kind and quality of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.
RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of this city and vicinity, that they will continue to above business at the old stand, and will hope to merit and receive a continuance of the very liberal patronage which has been heretofore bestowed upon them.
The great superiority of our Buildings and Machinery renders our facilities for business such that successful competition by any other establishment is difficult, if not impossible.

A superior Steam Engine for Turning, &c., kept constantly in operation. All work of this description done with great facility.
Every kind of Side Boards, Chairs, Tables, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Stands, &c., kept constantly on hand, and manufactured to order at the shortest notice, and on the best terms.

UNDERTAKING.
We shall continue to give our special attention to this branch of our business, with a view to release the friends of deceased persons from the insupportable trouble attending the death of a friend, and would state that they are prepared to undertake the whole business of Funerals, if desired, or any part thereof, on reasonable terms; such as furnishing either one or two horse Hearse, built after the most approved style. Also, Carriages, and every other requisite pertaining to the business.

PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER.—They will continue to use this valuable apparatus. The object for which it is used, is to prevent the decay of the body for any length of time, without being in anywise offensive to delicacy, or unseemly in appearance. The value of such a machine cannot be estimated but by those tender feelings which attend the death of a friend, and among those who have been compelled to use it on account of the fast decaying of their friends, a general and pleasing satisfaction has been given; for none can speak too highly of its use as an important and useful invention. It is a perfect preserver of the body, and all others who desire to delay Funerals until the arrival of relatives, or to make suitable preparation for interment, can, by the use of this machine, preserve their friends in a perfectly moderate state, allowing all to gaze upon them.

J. B. FITLER & CO.
N. B.—We have two Horses and Carriages, and the best and most careful hands in our employ; so that all calls can and will be
